

NIA

BIO

Young Nala in Disney's Tony Award-Winning Musical, "The Lion King" on Broadway

Youngest Little Girl Affiliated with SESAC Atlanta

John Lennon's Songwriting Contest Semi-Finalist

Originally from Atlanta and now based in Los Angeles, Nia is a progressive R&B artist performing original music that marries thought-provoking storytelling with a deep appreciation for the nostalgic, soulful harmonies of R&B legends. Her music captivates with its infectious melodies, captivating hooks, and powerfully soulful vocals, while her instrumentation weaves intricate beats creating an immersive sonic experience resonating with audiences worldwide.

From mesmerizing audiences as the former Young Nala in Disney's Tony Award-Winning Musical, "The Lion King" on Broadway, to releasing her latest EP, "Night & Day," showcases Nia's artistic evolution. Nia's recognition from super music producer Timbaland, stating, "Her background vocals give me that feel of, like, that old nostalgia 2000s that's missing in the world right now," solidifies her position as an undeniable force in the music industry. Join the movement and experience Nia's fearless artistry.

"Her background vocals give me that feel of, like, that old nostalgia 2000s that is missing in the world right now." - Timbaland